

Penny Fedorchak

Penny's passion has always been to be an artist. Her early interest in art found its path to pottery and stained glass; she followed her heart's desire to paint in watercolor. She paints around town with the Monday Plein Air Painters, choosing landscapes, as well as flowers and still life. Penny's paintings hang at Brandon Gallery, where she is a juried member of the co-operative gallery. Penny's happiest, creative moments come as she splashes paint on paper. She hopes the viewer will enjoy her paintings as much as she enjoyed creating them.

Floral Explosion

Yosemite in spring

Artist's Brushes

Penny's Plymouth