President's Message December, 2009

Our recent Open Judged Show was a whopping success! Welcome to all our new members who joined us this past month.

Congratulations to the award winners and giant kudos to our awesome volunteers! Many people have called to tell me how impressed they were at how beautifully everything was displayed and how organized, efficient and friendly everyone was, both during the entry process and at the reception. Thanks to each of you who welcomed visitors throughout the show by sitting the gallery.

Held at the Fallbrook Art Center, all 195 entries were accepted. Many fledgling artists had an opportunity to showcase their work, possibly for the first time, in an elegant gallery alongside the professional artists' pieces that get into juried shows on a fairly regular basis. What an opportunity! If you missed it, remember to enter next year. You might even win a cash award for your efforts!

If you're new at this, you have a whole year to hone your skills by attending some of the fabulous workshops offered to members and non-members alike. Just contact one of our workshop chairs, Pattie Lee Fontaine or Patricia Korzec, and they'll reserve a space for you.

I hope you're planning to join us at the FPUD Monday, December 7th, to celebrate the Holiday Season and hobnob with old and new FAA friends. If last year's party was any indication of our ability to let loose and have fun with each other, this one should be at least that good and more! We've hired a band to serenade you as you enjoy each other's culinary creations. We'll also be giving one of you a check for $100 if you received the People's Choice Award. You're welcome to come even if you decide at the last minute, but if you can let Sandi Wilks or Diane Jansen know they can count on you, it'll help them plan better. The festivities begin at 5 PM, so dress up and come prepared to have a great time. See the article inside this newsletter for all the details.

Warmly, Karen Langer Baker

Thanks to our photographers Jon Harwood and Don Hambric, as well as to Robert Feuerstein who managed not to fall off that chair as he photographed every winner at the reception!
