President's Message

NOVEMBER, 2009

Well, here we are, approaching the Holiday Season, and with it, I'd like to suggest that you might enjoy finding simple and inexpensive ways to express your gratitude to the special people in your life.

As artists, we have an advantage in being able to take some of those paintings that never quite made it to the matting and framing stage and make special cards by cutting sections out and gluing them to ready-made blank cards. A handwritten note expressing what that person has meant to you would be so much more appreciated than a store-bought card—perfect for all occasions!

Our Sunshine Lady, Margaret Tolzman, has requested that some of those paintings could be given "as is" to her to use for making cards that she can send to our members who are under the weather. Also, she would appreciate being emailed or called if you know someone whose day can be brightened by a call or a card.

Are you ready for our upcoming show? Everyone's been working hard to make this the best one ever. Have you signed up yet to participate? If you're a member and you've entered a piece or two, we hope you're planning to spend at least a few hours during the show sitting and greeting visitors at the Art Center. If you haven't done so yet, please contact Noreen Ring to request the best time that fits your schedule. Although it's not mandatory—we can use all the help we can get!

Have you attended a workshop yet? If not, you're really missing a great opportunity to stretch your skills and perhaps learn some new techniques. No matter how proficient you are, there's always room to experience something different. And what a deal it is! Members still pay only $30 for a full day!

For those of you wishing to have your work on public display, we now have a beautiful new office in town that welcomes original art on their walls—Edward Jones, near CVS in Albertson's Center. No fee, no commission! David Bean is in charge of scheduling and helping you arrange your work. If you have a lot of pieces and prefer a "one-person" show, that can be scheduled. If you would prefer to be part of a group show with one or a few pieces, that's possible too. Just let David know and he'll work with you.

Again, I want to thank each of you for all the ways you've been helping to make this such a vibrant and successful organization. It's really a pleasure to serve as your president with such wonderful support!

Warmly,
Karen Langer Baker

Jack Ragland
Painter of Life and Spirit

A Passion and reverence for life vibrate in Jack Ragland's oil and acrylic painting of landscapes, figures, animals and florals that seem to scintillate with radiant color and exuberant brush work.

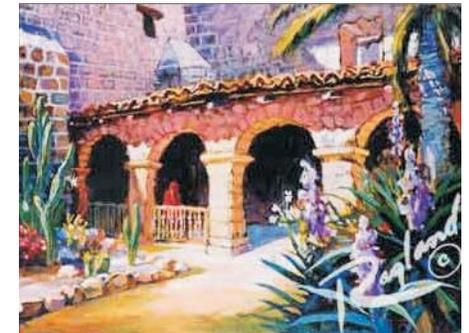

Jack completed an MA at Arizona State University and three years post graduate study at UCLA on a teaching fellowship. He was then head of the Department of Art at Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, for 12 years. A sabbatical leave in Europe for study, travel, and a successful one-artist show in Vienna, Austria, sparked his dream of returning to California to paint full time.

He has exhibited his works in solo and group shows in galleries from New York to California and has won numerous competitive awards as well. His works and in private, corporate and public collections in the USA and Europe, including the following: the Los Angeles County Museum; the Phoenix Museum; the Albertina Museum, Vienna Austria; the Kunstmuseum, Basel, Switzerland; the Bibliotheque National, Paris, France, and others.

Who's Who in America, Who's Who in the world, and International Who's Who list Jack's considerable achievements. His artistic career has been followed in newspapers, magazines, television and special publications, such as Prize Winning Paintings, Book II; Artists of Central and Northern California, Vol. II, 1991. Jack's painting "Bonsall Bridge" was published in Land of Sunlight; Contemporary Paintings of San Diego County, 2007. "American Artist" featured Jack in the Oct. 1993 issue.

In 2007, out of several thousand contestants, Jack was one of the top three artists in the national "Next Great American Artist Contest" sponsored by Kirkland's Homes. In 2008, Jack won Best of Show at the Grand National Art Show at the Cow Palace in San Francisco. In 2009, his painting "Canyon de Chelly Gold" was in the top mini 50 in the National Paint the Parks competition.

NEW "SHOWS" CHAIR NEEDED FOR 2010

Bill Riedell and Jon Harwood, who have been chairing our two major annual shows for a long, long time, have given notice that next year's Spring Open Juried Show will be their last. They have offered to train and work closely with whoever takes over the job in Fall 2010 so the transition will be smooth and relatively easy. Jon will be available to work the show with the new chair(s) so that a full show of hands on training will be available.

If you are interested and would like to be considered for this extremely important position, please contact them as soon as possible. Either call Jon at 760-728-0453 or Bill at 760-940-4290 so you can begin apprenticing right away!.

FAA WELCOMES NEW NEWSLETTER EMAILING CHAIR

We are so happy to be doing our part to save the environment by "Going Green," beginning with this newsletter. Thanks to Mary Manesis for volunteering to take on the job! Those of you who have given us your email address will receive a notice from Mary that our latest newsletter is on our site and ready for you to read by clicking on the link provided. If that link doesn't work, you can go directly to: www.fallbrookartassn.org and click on the latest newsletter there. You'll also be able to see archived past newsletters— all in color!

FAA WELCOMES NEW REFRESHMENT CHAIRS

Many thanks go to Leona Crump and Adriana Figari, who have graciously volunteered to head the Refreshment Committee! Shirley Calvert also deserves extra kudos for stepping right in to handle everything until our new chairs were in place. She made phone calls and got lots of goodies to be brought to our last meeting. Since Leona and Adriana are now properly indoctrinated, please be sure to call them and offer to bring refreshments to at least one meeting and also to help with preparation and cleanup.

NEW BOOKS FOR FAA

I am asking esteemed artists, such as yourself, to help me by listing books they would like to see in the new library AND what subjects/themes, e.g., stone sculpture, wood sculpture, ancient art, artist monographs, art theory, art literature, Dada and Surrealism, Edward Ruscha, etc. you would recommend.

To purchase, I have to go through the county library vendors, but that shouldn't present much of a problem. thanks so much.

I also would greatly appreciate some artist's names and contact info from you that would also give me some worthy recommendations.

Bev Thorardson, BSinclairT@aol.com

The following is Excerpted from the Isabella Breasted article in the Union Tribune:

NORTH COUNTY LOSES TREASURED ARTIST

"I never did art as a child and didn't care for it in school," Alison Christler said during an interview in 2007. Thank goodness for all of us that she learned to like it! She has left us with a treasure of beautiful artwork. She herself is a treasure in our hearts.

Alison was a distinguished artist, regularly winning the highest awards and honors in shows. Her work was accepted in the prestigious San Diego Watercolor Society's International Exhibit, Watercolor West, and the Louisiana Watercolor Society. She also taught art classes at Rikki Reinholtz' Studio of Art and Design in Solana Beach.

ALISON'S MEMORIAL

A memorial for Alison Christler will take place at Stonesteps in Encinitas on November 1, 2009 at 2:00 p.m. (Standard time returns on the same day.) Kirkos will be doing a sand painting (labyrinth). Directions to Stonesteps:

Off of Highway 101 in Encinitas, go west on El Portal Street. At the T, make a left onto La Mesa. Make an immediate right onto South El Portal Street. Continue to the ocean.

Parking is tight. Plan to walk a couple of blocks to the steep staircase leading down to the beach. You will be in sand and stones so wear appropriate footwear.

An alternative to Grandview parking (and the STEEP STAIRS to the beach) is to park at Ponto Beach which is slightly North of the intersection of La Costa Avenue and Coast Hi-way 101 and walk south to the area below Grandview. See our SDAG website www.offtrackgallery.com for directions to Grandview.
