President's Message May, 2010

Kudos to all of you who participated in making our Open Juried Show the success it was! A show like this takes almost a year to plan and requires many volunteers, which we had in abundance. Many thanks to all the committee heads: Bill Riedell and Jon Harwood, who were in charge of everything; Marcia Flowers and Ellie Garcia, who participated in every aspect as show chair-apprentices; Carol Reardon, who headed up the entry day process; Noreen Ring, who made sure we had enough sitters for every shift of every day; Marlene Sheridan, who headed the judging committee and Lydia Hill-Moore who apprenticed under her; Jeanne Shanahan, who organized the placement of everything; Jerry Pennington and Mike Reardon, who headed up the hanging committee; Linda Thorne, who made sure we had yummy refreshments; Don Klinger, who made new member applicants feel welcomed; Peg Klinger, who publicized the event; Patty Mangels, who entered all the data and created the program, as well as the wall tags along with Jerry Pennington; and Don Hambric, who photographed everything and even made a CD which he will sell with part of the proceeds donated to FAA. There were so many others who participated without receiving any recognition, and without naming them all, I want to emphasize that we couldn't have had such a classy event without their help.

Held from April 9th through the 25th at the Fallbrook Art Center, the juror, Ken Goldman, selected 166 pieces out of the 229 entries, and told us he was so impressed at the quality of the work that he went slightly overboard awarding honorable mentions! He's a great teacher as well and spent considerable time explaining concepts of design and structure to the judging committee. All of us will be able to learn some of his secrets of creative mastery this month when he returns to give us a painting demonstration at our meeting on Monday, May 10th, followed by a workshop the following Sunday, May 16th. Be sure to reserve a place in advance as it's likely to fill quickly.

At our April meeting, the chair of our nominating committee, Bill Riedell, presented the nominees for the 2010-11 year's positions and asked for additional nominees. The final names will be presented at our May meeting for your vote. There's still time for you to contact him to suggest yourself or someone else to serve on the Board of Directors or to head a committee.

Elin Pendleton gave us a caring and pointed critique of our "works in progress" at our April meeting and then followed that by painting a scene using her famous color system of cools and warms. Be sure to attend these critique sessions which have become a hallmark of our association. What an opportunity we have to improve our painting skills! No other art association provides this valuable learning experience, and we're grateful to all the artists who have given so generously of their time and talents. These artists donate a piece of their work which we raffle off on behalf of raising more funds for scholarships.

I want to encourage all of you to donate items to beef up our scholarship fund raffle. Bring us anything art-related that you no longer want or need, such as art magazines, prints, frames, and artist supplies. If you have art DVDs, you can donate them to our library and receive a tax deduction. Thanks to Sue Karr, you can request a copy of the list of available DVDs so you can plan what you'd like to borrow for the following month. Just send her a stamped, self-addressed envelope and she'll send you the list. We also have the lists available at our meetings.

Just a reminder: As you attend other functions and meet artists, please invite them to attend our meetings and get involved with FAA. And, please consider getting involved as a participant in our many committees and activities. We depend on you!

Warmly, Karen Langer Baker

BRANDON GALLERY

MIRA COSTA COLLEGE ART STUDENTS AND INSTRUCTOR FEATURED AT FALLBROOK'S BRANDON GALLERY IN MAY

Fallbrook, Calif., April 9, 2010 — MiraCosta College art instructor Diane Adams and 25 of her watercolor students will be featured artists at Fallbrook's Brandon Gallery in May.

According to Adams, many of those included in the exhibition that runs from May 4 through May 31 are award winning artists whose work was honored at the Del Mar Fair, San Diego Watercolor Society, Vista Art Foundation. MiraCosta Colleges juried exhibit and the Carlsbad Oceanside Art League (COAL). An artists' reception open to the public is scheduled at Brandon Gallery, Saturday, May 8, from 3 to 5 PM.

Adams declared several independent studies participants featured artists. They include David Banks, Susan Currey and Bonnie Gleason and MiraCosta College Medal of Art winner, Erin Cook.

David Banks, she explained, paints old weathered and textured subjects using a build-up of glazes, a very difficult process. Susan Currey specializes in large and intimate still lifes and flowers with lush wet-into-wet colors. Local scenes and moody interiors are the specialty of Bonnie Gleason who employs glowing colors for emphasis. Erin Cook developed an expertise around photo-realistic paintings. Adams' work will also be featured.

Fallbrook Brandon Gallery (www.fallbrookbrandongallery.org), 105 N. Main St., one door off Alvarado in the Village of Fallbrook, is a non-profit artists' co-operative with 28 members representing many major creative disciplines. Each month member and guest artists from San Diego and Riverside counties display hundreds of pieces of art that include textiles and sculpture, jewelry and gourd art, oil and acrylic paintings, watercolors and pastels, greeting cards, printmaking, photography and digital media.

Brandon Gallery is open from 10AM to 5PM Tuesday through Saturday and 11AM to 4PM on Sundays.

On Saturday, March 27, 2010 the Fallbrook Art Association changed the art in the lobby of the Bob Burton Center for Performing Arts.

Those members who volunteered to help for the day were, Marlene Sheridan and her granddaughter, Noreen Ring, Bill Riedell, Mike Reardon, Pierre Mainguene, Regine Hawkins, Don Klinger, Natasha Ragland, Shirley Calvert and Ira Yawnick.

Due to their hard work and dedication, we were able to complete the project of getting art that was hung in August 2009 back to the artists and take in new pieces which will be on exhibit in the lobby/gallery for the next six months. The artists who brought in art for display at the lobby/gallery are: Ayn Bryant, Shirley Calvert, Penny Fedorchack, Brigitta Fox, Elizabeth Gilby, Jeannie Harrison, Patricia Hartman, Regine Hawkins, Lydia Hill, Sharon Hill, Rosemarie Meis, Lori Miller, Jennifer Morlan, Barbara Olliveras, Lucina Orth, Jerome Pennington, Jack Ragland, Bill Riedell, Marilee Ragland, Natasha Ragland, Noreen Ring, Richard Wynne and Ira Yawnick. The artwork will be on display until late September or early October this year, at which time we will make another change with all new art.

The Burton Center hosts many public entertainment events and this is a great opportunity for our members to display/sell their work in a public forum. Brigitta Fox sold one of her paintings in January, out of this exhibit, so it does happen, congratulations Brigitta.

I wish to thank all the members who volunteered their time and the artists who brought in their artwork for this very important project.

I also wanted to let everyone know we had a sign made which identifies where the art is from and the name of our organization. It was professionally made and set in a 16" X 20" frame, which makes it compatible with the art that surrounds it.

Thank you, Jerry Pennington,

ELIN PENDLETON APRIL DEMO

HELLO ARTISTS:

It is that time of year to begin planning our summer Wine & A Bite Art Walks. For those of you not familiar with them, four locations are chosen where each attendee receives food, wine and enjoys an art experience not otherwise available.

The Art Walks, once again, will be the third Saturday of the month, July 17th, August 21st, and September 18th. The hours will be 6 PM to 8 PM and instead of four events, we will only have three this year. One of our venues will be the Village Square where we would like to feature two artists on each date. You would set up in the square and demonstrate your talent. It's a wonderful marketing opportunity for you and an enjoyable evening. You will have a chance to talk with the attendees and sell your work.

Please let me know if you are interested in participating by hitting reply with a "yes" or "no". If you answer "yes" indicate a date(s) that will work for you. Requests will be taken on a "first come, first serve" basis.

Thank you, Judee Smith
