

Meeting: Fallbrook School of the Arts, 310 East Alvarado
Fallbrook, CA . Mailing: PO Box 382, Fallbrook CA 92088

Dear Artists,

Congratulations FAA on a beautiful Fall Show. The works were so different and yet everything pulled together to make a cohesive and fine show.

Good going to all the winners. Please accept my apologies for failing to call the Honorable Mention winners to the front during the award ceremony at the reception. I simply forgot and regret that omission deeply. Please accept my apology.

It takes a lot of effort to put on a show like this. Many thanks to all the volunteers. Our show chair, Annie Youngblood and her cast of many put in a lot of hours to make it work so well. A sincere thanks to Annie and her crew. When our next show rolls around, please consider stepping into one of the volunteer slots. We need you.

And on the subject of volunteers, there are important positions in FAA leadership in need of someone to say, "I'll help." During the brief business meeting at the last general meeting and demo, the call went out for a new food chairman. Karen Pride raised her hand and said, "I'll do it..." music to our ears. Thank you, Karen.

In closing let me remind you to come to the holiday party. Details below. Meanwhile...

Happy Painting, Carol

HOLIDAY PARTY DEC. 11, 6:00 hosted by Patricia Korzac who says, "Sparkly is the word. Dress sparkly. The decor will be sparkly. Come for a sparkling good time." It promises to be fun, elegant. She says the room at the Fallbrook School for the Arts will be transformed into "...romantic, crystal beauty." That's a tall order but Patricia can do it. (If I may editorialize here, the party last year was such fun. Patricia is the party expert. Plan to come. Wear sparkles. Plan to laugh and enjoy yourself. Ed)

Notice a new potluck schedule. If your last name starts with the following, bring...large enough to serve 12.

A-G main dish, H-M salad or vegetable side dish, N-P appetizers, Q-Z, dessert

Darlene Katz Demo in November

Darlene Katz delivered unusually sensitive comments during critiques at the general meeting in November. She searched every painting presented for critique to find both positive and negative aspects and comment on them. Her demo was interesting in that she paints on dark-toned wood which is a every different experience from painting on white. See second picture below.

Dorland Mountain Art Colony offers one to 12 week residencies where artists, musicians and writers shed the tensions of their busy lives and create. Address: 56701 Highway 79 S., Temecula 92592. Go to dorlandartscolony.org, call 951-302-3837 or write info@dorlandartscolony.org for info.

Robert Willis writes: "Dorland is an enchanted place." That was jotted down in my journal twenty years ago when I first came here. In time, we learned that long ago the Pechanga Indians made a seasonal camp here to gather acorns for their winter food supply. An elder from the neighboring reservation, who still visits, tells of other rites that took place here in our oak grove. Now a small herd of deer comes in the spring with their fawns to feed on the acorns.

FAA's Plein Air Painters meet every Wednesday around 9:00 AM at pre-selected areas followed by critique and lunch. New painters are always welcome. Call Ruth Parker at 760-505-7238 for information. See pictures below of good times while plain air painting. Photos by Al Brandli. All pictures taken at Valley Fort in Fallbrook.
