124 S. Mission Road, Fallbrook, CA
Mailing: PO Box 382, Fallbrook, CA 92088

Hi all... I am so pleased with the way everyone received Fallbrook School of the Arts as our new meeting place. We still need to work out a few kinks but when I took a pole of the members present, they all said it was great. It is an art environment. Jim Millard, guest demo artist, said it was so appropriate to be in a place where so many great artists have taught. The room is big enough but the feeling is intimate. No need for a PA. Jim did a great demo. I look forward to many more demos in our new home.

We will have had Jim's workshop at the school by the time you receive this newsletter. Please help support the artists and FAA by attending these workshops. There is something to learn from every artist.

Our next meeting is the second Thursday, June 12. Making the changes of the new meeting place and the new day of the week will become easier as we move through the year. In June, we are looking forward to a pot luck and silent auction of art supplies. Please bring your items to be sold to the art school the day of the meeting. Pattie Bowler gives details below.

I look forward to seeing all of you at the June meeting. Happy Painting, Carol Reardon

Silent Art Supply Auction Details from Chairman Pattie Bowler

Spring clean your art studio. Bring your treasures to the FAA meeting June 12 at 6:00—art books, frames, paper, brushes, any items you are not using that your fellow artists might want. Bring your donations (along with your casserole...balancing act, we know, but artists are clever). When you arrive, you will be given a piece of paper to describe each item which will then be displayed for silent auction. While we enjoy our potluck we can bid on and purchase items. The money earned will be used for awards at future shows, to off-set the cost of our new meeting space and scholarships. Hope to see everyone there.

Contact Pattie with questions: 214-403-3839, 442-444-8016 or pattiebowler@yahoo.com.

Pot Luck Instructions

Bring a dish for 12 to share, something easy, hearty and, should we say, healthy? We're going to trust that we won't end up with 32 loaves of bread or 64 desserts. Think salads and main dishes but a respectable number of desserts will be welcome.

Notice: No demos in June, July and August. Catherine Grawin, oils, demos Sept. 11.

Welcome New Members

Welcome Sunny Hilger, Bob Bliefus and Dan and Carol Laulom. We'll look for you at the June 12 meeting. Thanks for coming on board.

The newsletter has a new look as we evolve toward using greater online capabilities. Watch for changes to come. Meanwhile, the summer issues will be abbreviated because FAA is most active in the fall, winter and spring.

Jim Millard presented a watercolor demo at the May general meeting, the first meeting held at the Fallbrook School of the Arts. The meeting was well attended with nearly 40 people present. President, Carol Reardon conducted an informal poll and the overwhelming response to the location was favorable. Millard said it was a pleasure to work in a room where so many distinguished artists had taught. His forte is a loose style capitalizing on the nature of the medium—a tendency to go its own way.

Hello Artists!

Here's information for the upcoming Logo Competition for the 2015 Avocado Festival. The winning entry receives $500.00! Deadline is October 3rd. For info, contact Anita Kimzey, Coordinator, LOGO COMPETITION, 714-222-2462 (cell), 760-731-0277 (home) or register@fallbrookchamberofcommerce.org.

The Burton Center displays the work of FAA members in its lobby for six months and, as a bonus, a few pieces have been sold from there. The last change-out was April 12. The next change-out will take place in October. Gallant volunteers Carol Reardon, Marilee Raglan on ladder, Jerry Pennington, Anne Youngblood and Al Brandli risked life and limb and got the current show hung in two hours. Plan to enter your work at the next change-out and plan to come out and help. Photo by Al Brandli
